

Flights of Fancy

Georgia Archives - 5800 Jonesboro Road - Morrow, Georgia 30260

January through May 2010 - Tuesday through Saturday - 8:30 AM through 5:00 PM

Today, Hartsfield-Jackson Airport, located in parts of Clayton and Fulton counties, is ranked as one of the world's busiest airports. "Flights of Fancy" examines how airlines went about marketing commercial aviation as a popular means of transportation and how that made Hartsfield-Jackson such a busy place, and in turn, made Atlanta a popular tourist and business destination.

Organized by the Georgia Archives & the National Museum of Commercial Aviation